RAILROADS HURT BY DRASTIC LAWS

Cannot Borrow Money Abroad at This Time, Says Harriman.

NO LOAN FOR UNION PACIFIC

Hostile Attitude Towards Corporations Is Put Forth as Cause.

NEW YORK, June 3.—That negotiations for the placing of a $50,000,000

loan in Europe by the Union Pacific

Railroad Company failed of success because of the attitude on railroad corporations in this country early in the year was the statement made by

E. H. Harriman to-day. Mr. Harriman said that had the negotiations been successful the proceeds of the loan would have been brought to this country at a time when the American money markets urgently needed funds;

but as the arrangements could not be successfully completed, a different plan of financing was followed by the Southern Pacific, as recently adopted.

Mr. Harriman said that the present financial plans of the company will provide all the funds required by the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific

Companies. No policy of retrenchment has been inaugurated, according to Mr.

Harriman, and no extensions into new fields are being planned.

MISS MAGRUDER

CRITICALLY ILL

Popular Novelist Barely Alive at St. Luke's Hospital Last Night.

Miss Julia Magruder, one of the best known of the American novelists, lies desperately ill at St. Luke's Hospital.

It is not expected that she will live through the day.

A signal honor has just been conferred on Miss Magruder, the news only having reached her yesterday. The French Academy has conferred upon her, in recognition of her contributions to literature, the "Order of Palms," an honor enjoyed by but a distinguished few in America.

The jeweled decoration was promised a year ago, but on account of the formalities which surround the French

Academy, the formal bestowal of the decoration only reached Miss Magruder on her death.

That the honor was won by merit

all those who know Miss Magruder's books will concede, for no writer of Virginia has contributed more successfully or more regularly than she.

A brilliant talker, no one enjoyed a wider or more charming circle of friends than did Miss Magruder, who was as much at home in Paris, London and New York as in Washington, where she resided of late, or in Virginia or North Carolina, where she lived for many years. Miss Magruder was an intimate friend of Frances

Amelia Troubetzkoy, and spent much of her time at "Chest Hill" and at "The Alder," Northampton, Italy.

She was born at Charlottesville, Va.,

on September 14, 1849, the daughter of

SOUTH OBSERVED DAVIS'S BIRTHDAY

General Holiday Proclaimed and Work Halts for Five Minutes.

RAILWAY WHEELS SILENT

Patriotic Ceremony at Montgomery, Where Davis Took the Oath.

NORFOLK, VA., June 3.—In accordance with the request of General Stephen D. Lee, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, that the memory of Jefferson Davis be thus honored at the hour of unveiling of the Jefferson Davis Monument at Richmond to-day, practically all railroad and other transportation operations in this city and vicinity were suspended for five minutes at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Many in addition to the railroads suspended work for the period mentioned.

Observed in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, June 3.—Confederate Memorial Day in Louisiana and Jefferson Davis's birthday were made a double holiday. The banks and many commercial houses were closed. No special preparations were made here to observe the moment of the unveiling of the Davis statue in Richmond. Confederate monuments and the graves of Confederate soldiers were decorated during the parade of Confederate organizations.

Texas Takes Holiday.

DALLAS, TEX., June 3.—A new State law making Jefferson Davis's birthday a legal holiday was observed to-day by the government through its local officials.

In Old Confederate Cradle.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 3.—This city took marked notice of the unveiling of the monument of Jefferson Davis at Richmond to-day, all business being suspended and the stores closed for five minutes. The people of the city in large numbers gathered about the star on the capitol steps which marked the place where President Davis stood to take the oath as President, and stood with bowed heads at the time of unveiling. A floral offering was sent to Richmond by the State in form of a huge cradle. It represented the cradle of the Confederacy, as Montgomery is known.

Street and Railway Cars Halt.

ATLANTA, GA., June 3.—The proclamation by Governor Terrell for a suspension of business for five minutes during the unveiling of the Jefferson Davis Monument at Richmond was generally observed here to-day. During the five minutes following 2 o'clock the street cars halted in their places, railroad trains on the transportation lines stopped, and many stores closed their doors.

Bells Chime in Savannah.

SAVANNAH, GA., June 3.—For five minutes after 2 o'clock this afternoon every large factory and industry in Savannah stopped, in honor of the memory of Jefferson Davis. Street cars did not run, the City Hall chimed the chimes of St. John's Church sounded, and railroad trains of the systems out of Savannah stopped.

FIGHT AT RUEGER'S.

W. W. Morrison Says that He Was Given More Than He Called For.

W. W. Morrison, special agent for the Southern Railway, was arrested last night in Rueger's Hotel, charged with assault on Mr. Louis Rueger and Eddie Farrar, one of the men who were arrested about 11 o'clock. Morrison stated last night that the trouble occurred over the fact that he had ordered two sixty-cent steaks and that he was brought a single steak. According to him, he called the attention of the waiter to this fact when his bill was presented, and the waiter asked him to step into the hall and see Mr. Rueger about it. Morrison said that the waiter insulted him in the hall and he struck him. Several other waiters standing round the table, Morrison declared, and he came out of it much latered and bruised.

Morrison was arrested by Officer McCall, Smith and Hall. He was bailed by Mr. F. L. Sparks.

It was stated at Rueger's last night that the trouble occurred over the payment of a bill, but that Mr. Rueger did not engage in the fight, and that he was not struck by Morrison.

WESTMINSTER TO CLOSE.

Commencement Exercises to Begin This Afternoon and End Thursday.

The closing exercises of the Westminster School will begin this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the lecture hall of the First Presbyterian Church, in which the preparatory class will give the program. All the children in this department will take part in the exercises. The exercises of the academic department will be held Thursday night in the Y. M. C. A. Dr. Russell C. Bell, president of the board of trustees, will be the speaker of the evening, and he will also deliver the diploma to the graduates as follows: Misses Margie and Fannie Nichols, of Scottsville; Miss Anna Russell Sampson, of Patuxent; and Misses Virginia Campbell, Gay Wilson, Louise Camp and Annie Miller, English, of Richmond. Miss Sampson has been elected valedictorian for the class.

The senior class will hold its celebration to-night, the feature of the evening will be the bonfire, in which will be burned all the relics of school days. To-morrow night the student body will tender a reception to the senior class.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Unknown Prisoner Tries to Hang Himself in the Station.

One of the prisoners at the Second Police Station, who was too drunk to give his name when brought in, attempted last night to commit suicide by hanging himself. Drunk as he was, he had precaution enough in his attempt at self-murder to take off his clothes and hang them up in front of the grating so that his actions might not be observed from the outside. The desk sergeant and the houseman were busy at the time, and no notice was given to the cell, the man was not given any attention.

As another prisoner was being taken into a cell the unknown prisoner's clothes were noticed hanging up in front of his cell, and an investigation of the cell was made. He was cut down immediately and brought out. The ambulance surgeon was summoned to the station, and the man was soon restored to consciousness.

When first brought into the cell the man said that he had tried to hang himself. Further than that he could not go.

ONE THOUSAND DIED IN BIRMINGHAM SHOPS.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., June 3.—It is somewhat difficult to estimate the number of men that responded to the call for a general sympathetic strike in the Birmingham district at noon to-day. Officials of the trades council claim that between 1,000 and 1,500 ceased work and that more will follow to-morrow. Conservative union men, however, put the number at less than 1,000. The carpenters, plumbers, brewery workers and white barbers appear to have been the only organizations that struck.

Ill From Overwork

NERVOUS PROSTRATION CURED BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

By Toning up the Blood and Nerves Patient Recovered Weight, Strength and Good Spirits.

When the nervous system is broken down from overwork, or whatever cause, life loses its joys. Not only is the nervous victim a sufferer himself but he is usually a trial to the whole family. A nervous breakdown is often gradual, appearing at first to be merely an unusual fretfulness. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills tone up the nerves in the most direct way and not only cure minor troubles but serious disorders as well.

Mr. W. W. Munroe, of 16 Hazel Park, Everett, Mass., says: "About four years ago this September I became all run down from overwork and from confinement to work during warm weather. For two months I grew steadily worse. I lost in weight and strength and had no appetite. My memory failed me quite rapidly and I became in a very low state, both physically and mentally. I was unable to do any work, neither in business nor recreation. In my position, as foreman in a large manufacturing chemist's establishment in Boston, a good memory is absolutely essential to success because of the immense amount of detail that must be carried in the head.

"I grew very despairing, could not bear to have people meet me and my friends remarked on my condition. About the middle of December a friend told me one day that he had tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and found them reliable. I commenced taking them and at the end of two weeks the change for the better was remarked. I continued using the pills until I was thoroughly recovered. I regard them as a fine remedy and make this statement voluntarily in gratitude for the benefit I received from them."

These pills actually make new blood and have cured such diseases as rheumatism, nervous and general debility, indigestion, nervous headache, neuralgia and even partial paralysis and locomotor ataxia. As a tonic for the blood and nerves they are unequalled.

If you are a sufferer from any disorder of the blood and nerves write for proof of what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have accomplished in cases similar to yours. Every testimonial used by this company is carefully investigated before being published and is authentic. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or direct by mail, post-paid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per bottle, six bottles for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

REGULARS WIN IN COTTON EXCHANGE

James H. Parker Elected President as Choice of All Tickets.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The New York Cotton Exchange Association's election to-day resulted in the victory for the men who are known as the regular ticket. James H. Parker, candidate for the presidency on the three tickets in the field, was unanimously elected. The contest for vice-president resulted in the election of Edward M. Weid, on the regular ticket, against George W. Bailey, candidate on the opposition ticket, by a vote of 166 to 141. James E. Maury was re-elected treasurer without opposition.

The list of officers elected by the Produce Exchange to-day was headed by William Douglas. Mr. Douglas, who was elected president on the members' ticket, supported by what is known as the reform element in the exchange, received 1,120 votes, against 525 cast for Edward G. Burgess, candidate on the regular ticket. William H. Scott was elected vice-president and Edward C. Rice treasurer.

VETERANS FROM FAR NORTH RECEIVED MUCH APPLAUSE

MAJOR EDWARD OWEN.

Among those in line yesterday who received the plaudits of the multitude was the camp of Confederate Veterans from New York City, under command of Major Edward Owen, formerly of the famous Washington Artillery.

Mr. Kelley was associated with Governor William E. Cameron in establishing a daily paper in Petersburg just after the close of the first day in Virginia after the fall of Richmond. The paper, "The Daily News," was afterwards suppressed by the military governor, General Terry.

The New York camp fell into line at Petersburg, Franklin Streets yesterday, and from that point until the monument was reached they received a continuous ovation. Mr. Kelley said last night:

"Our reception was such that the memories of the hardships of camp life were forever buried in the cheers and smiles of the lovely daughters of Richmond. Unfortunately, our ranks were not as full as we wished, but those whose good fortune it was to be with us to-day will carry back recollections the sweetest and memories the dearest, which will linger with us while memory holds her sway."

"On behalf of the camp, I wish to say that we are very happy we were made by this most delicate and earnest welcome."

NO UNION MEMBERS ON HAYWOOD JURY

Twelve Men Finally Sworn to Hear Evidence and Decide His Fate.

REPUBLICANS IN MAJORITY

First Chapter in Quickening Tale of Caldwell Crime Comes To-Day.

BOISE, IDAHO, June 2.—Twelve men to try William D. Haywood for his life on the charge that he murdered former Governor Frank Steunenberg have been chosen to deal justice between State and prisoner. Haywood to-day heard the indictment charging him with the crime, and to-morrow, after the State has recited its case and made promise of proof, the first chapter of the quickening tale of the Caldwell crime of December 30, 1905, will be told.

The warlike work of jury selection ended quickly and unexpectedly this morning. Alfred Hoff, the first juror examined, was declared qualified after strong and repeated protests from the defense, and O. V. Sebern, the next juror examined, proved to be the twelfth and last one needed.

To-morrow morning James H. Hawley will address the court with the State's opening statement. He has prepared no manuscript, and said to-day that he would be brief.

In the work of procuring the jury the court has been in session fifteen days, and 150 talesmen have been examined. Of the thirty-four jurors who have qualified, including twelve men now in the box, Orris Cole was excused on account of sickness, and J. E. Tourtelotte was excused after close touch with many officers of opposition to capital punishment.

The Haywood jury is made up of eight Republicans, three Democrats, and one Prohibitionist. It consists of nine farmers, one real estate agent, one building contractor, and one farmer from fence construction on a railroad. There is no man on the jury who works for wages or who has ever belonged to a labor organization. Accepting Burns, who was a member of the carpenters' union fourteen years ago.

NO POLITICS AT REUNION, HE SAYS

great ovation which greeted him was extended to the eloquent Democratic citizen of the republic and a distinguished American.

Enjoyed the Day.

Last night Colonel Bryan, who, as commander of a Nebraska regiment in the Spanish-American War, came in close touch with many officers of the army who had once served under the Stars and Bars, spoke very freely to a Times-Dispatch writer concerning his pleasure in being present at the reunion.

"I am saying a compliment to Richmond and expressing my delight in the growth and prosperity of the city," he said.

"I have enjoyed the day immensely. It is the first Confederate Reunion that I have attended, and this one was of especial importance—first, because of the unveiling of the monuments to President Jefferson Davis and General J. E. B. Stuart, and second, because Richmond is so rich in memories connected with the Confederate cause."

"It interested me to note the enthusiasm of those who participated in the parade and of the people who lined the streets."

"The monuments, beautiful in themselves and ornamental to the city, speak louder than words the devotion of the living Confederates to their dead leaders."

"My chief enjoyment arises from the fact that we have reached a period when each side recognizes the high purpose and the conscientiousness of the other side, and when the bravery of the men and the sacrifices of the women on both sides of the line are cherished as the common heritage of the nation."

"The tokens of love which have been reared throughout the South do not cause regrets or criticism in the North, for the South is free to do as she pleases. The South is more trusted than it would be if the Southern people were less loyal to those who bore with them the burdens and hardships of the war."

"The Union is stronger, not weaker, because of the war, and the future is brighter because both the Union and Confederate side, American citizens were willing to give their lives in support of their convictions."

"The highest attribute of man is found in his willingness to make great sacrifices for what he believes to be right."

"My enjoyment of the day was increased by the fact that my wife was able to share the privilege with me and make the acquaintance of so many of the South's women."

"This visit has given me an opportunity to renew acquaintance with Governor and Mrs. Swanson, whom I learned to know when the Governor and I began politics together in Congress."

Era of Development.

"I have noticed the great industrial improvements in the South," Colonel Bryan was asked.

"Yes. Your section seems to be passing through an era of development such as the North had some years ago. I have noticed all over the South increasing business activity and a considerable investment of Northern capital. I meet in every State people who have gone South to engage in farming or fruit-raising."

"Considering the enormous losses suffered by the Southern people during the war and in the reconstruction period, their recuperation and progress are wonderful."

Colonel Bryan predicted some fifteen years ago that manufacturing was likely to move South and the large increase in our cotton factories shows the economy of bringing the machinery and raw material close together."

Colonel Bryan left early this morning for Annapolis, where he will be the guest of Governor Warfield. He will speak in Baltimore to-night, and then go to Albany, where he will deliver an address before the New York Legislature.

Mrs. Bryan left yesterday afternoon for Hollis Institute to visit her daughter, who is a student there.

Fought at Ball Park.

J. J. Governor and J. T. Kent were arrested yesterday afternoon for fighting at the Broad Street Park. There were others mixed up in the fracas, but they escaped. The fight occurred during the progress of the game between Richmond and Lynchburg.

MR. BRYAN DRAWS FINE AUDIENCE

Two Thousand People Hear Brilliant Nebraskan on His Tour Around the World—Takes a Whack at Roosevelt—Glad to Attend Reunion.

Before an audience of fully two thousand people, Hon. W. J. Bryan delivered a lecture in the city Auditorium last night on "The Old World and Its Ways," and although he spoke exactly two hours, he held the closest attention of his hearers to the end.
